

The role of the board of directors is to direct, protect and enable the affiliate.

- A Habitat for Humanity board directs the affiliate by establishing and maintaining the “strategic what” of the organization.
- The board protects the organization by establishing boundaries that will result in the safe operation of the organization, providing monitoring tools for securing long-term success.
- The board enables the work of the organization through advocacy, resource development, and role discipline.

Board members are committed to the vision of Habitat for Humanity in our community, and willing to fulfill the duties of a board member. They will volunteer their time, talent, and other resources while leading the affiliate to ensure the success of Chaffee County Habitat for Humanity and its mission.
